Things We Don't Talk About - Woman's Stories from the Red Tent is a ground breaking 72 minute documentary film by award winning filmmaker Isadora Gabrielle Leidenfrost, PhD. Spontaneous and organic, a Red Tent is a red textile space where women gather to rest, renew, and often share deep and powerful stories about their lives. The Red Tent movement is changing the way that women interact and support each other by providing a place that honours and celebrates women, and by enabling open conversations about the things that women don't want to talk about in other venues. Things We Don't Talk About weaves together healing narratives from inside the Red Tent to shine a spotlight on this vital, emergent women's tradition.
