This blend will gift the user a sense of uplifting joy and clarity. The qualities of Clear Topaz bring alignment and truth and an ability to manifest that which is appropriate and synchronistic. It gifts one the awareness of being a conscious co-creator and helps with maintaining focus and clarity. Clear topaz supports an emergence with life direction to pursuing the 'path' which is true to the individual. This is great for new beginnings and sustaining focus to manifest one's highest intention.

Labradorite brings a depth of understanding from the inner self and from unseen realms. It fosters self-love and gifts a spectrum of possibility creatively. Enabling communication and understanding from elementals and alternate worlds. Magical elements of intuition and psychic ability are enhanced. Despite its dark outer appearance it holds a rainbow of brilliant hues visible only when the stone is held in the light. This essence protects the aura from unwanted external forces from tapping in. It creates a loving boundary that heals and contains.

Rainbow energy gifts a bridge from the Divine, integrating the full colour spectrum into the physical and energy body. Opening a doorway from heaven to earth, energising all chakra's with invigorating vitality. Crossing a bridge facilitates transformation and a new perspective creating greater unity. Rainbows are a manifestation of the union of Sun-light (Superconscious illumination and enlightenment) with Water (the Great Sub-Conscious and the Mysterious Unknown). As the Rainbow only appears after turbulent storms it is a symbol of the cleansing process which heralds in new life, new creation and new times. Sun energy can be understood as Yang or masculine and Water as Yin and feminine.

This blend will offer the user a grounded connection to the higher realms, whilst improving interpretation, communication and guidance. Use of the spray can support one through shifts and growth where Divine inspiration is required to bring in new ways of being that serve your highest awareness.

There is support to journey to inner worlds to source information and guidance on how to manifest and move forward to one's true Calling free from fear and anxiety. This is a soothing and calming mix that supports one to tap directly into their intuition and vision a colourful future that serves their highest calling.

The combination of solar and lunar energy imbibed with the essences brings a fullness and balance to the blend. The full moon essence was made at a lunar eclipse, when it is naturally a time of beginnings, endings, exposure, major changes and the time to gain a new perspective. The blocking of the Moon's reflection of the Sun's light by the Earth suggests that our material viewpoint stands in the way of our "seeing the light". It serves as a reminder that we need to realize how we are held in the dark by virtue of our perspective. Topaz and Labradorite gift the inner vision required to see outside of the box. To connect to the highest possible vision and vibration in all that is manifested.

Hyacinth essential oil provides a youthful energy which faces initiation and transformation. Magically, it can be used to make a new start into unknown territory and to let go of attachments. It is thus useful for initiation rites and the marking of new beginnings. It may help us understand that every new beginning is also an ending.

Violet oil has been used to dispel negativity and bring peace. It offers protection warding off unwanted energies. It has been used historically to meditate on the mysteries of life, death and rebirth and the abundance of the earth womb.

Oakmoss oil works in a subtle grounding and sensual way. It is a lichen that in the forest is the first indicator of an imbalance. Their growth cycle is so slow as to be almost timeless and they are among the oldest living things on the planet. This supports the physical integration of the Celestial energies and Divine Inspiration.
