

Womb Blessing training workshop

With the international author of 'Red Moon' and 'The Optimized Woman'

Miranda Gray

In a world that is more and more stressful, many women have lost connection to the sacredness of being female. When we connect to our femininity we feel loving, confident, strong, sexual, spiritual, creative and beautiful. We feel free from the guilt of the past and of not being 'good enough', and free from the restrictions of a masculine world.

In February 2012 Miranda answered the heartfelt cry for connection and created the Worldwide Womb Blessing, and by May over 18,500 women from 80 different countries had taken part.

To help spread the Womb Blessing worldwide, Miranda is now teaching 'Moon Mothers' how to give a personal, hands-on version of the Womb Blessing.

'Moon Mothers' are healers, combining the Womb Blessing and Womb Healing with other therapies. They are priestesses and celebrants, helping girls and women through their rites of passage, and they are companions in women's lives and on their spiritual paths.

The Womb Blessing is deeply transformational and available to all women.

Become part of the growing group of international 'Moon Mothers'!

In August Miranda is coming to Bristol to teach a 2-day Womb Blessing training workshop which includes:

- The 'Moon Mother' initiation
- How to give a Womb Blessing
- The spirituality behind the Womb Blessing meditation
- How to give a Womb Healing
- How to take an active role in spreading the Womb Blessing energy and take part in the three more worldwide events this year
